

Are you interested in doing a new choreography for SDCCS 2012?

SDCCS 2012 in Edmonton has a fun choreography opportunity! All choreographies will be performed to music by the Barra MacNeils. All dancers will perform on the Francis Winspear Centre Stage in the qualifying round and the top 6 finalists will perform LIVE to the Barra MacNeils during the SDCCS 2012 Opening Ceremonies. All this takes place on July 11th, 2012!

Dancers wishing to perform in the choreography must be at least in the Novice category. HOWEVER, if you are interested as a Beginner dancer you may be considered if you know the Fling, Sword, Seann Triubhas, Reel, Lilt & Flora.

Below please find further information about the choreography, lesson fees, costumes fees, competition dates / times (mandatory) and rehearsal dates / times (some mandatory).

Expenses will include:

- Costumes: Approx. $120
- Lessons / Practices: $120 (includes occasional rental of larger practice space and competition fees)

Competition Dates & Times (mandatory attendance):

- Saskatoon Open Competition Saturday May 26th, 2012 in Saskatoon
- SDCCS 2012 Choreography Competition Wednesday July 11th, 2012 in Edmonton

Rehearsals (some mandatory):

*Attendance at 90% of practices is expected. Thus, 1 practice is the maximum amount a dancer would be excused for without reason. Noted practices are considered mandatory and cannot be missed for any reason. If more than one practice is missed privates or semi-private lessons at the dancer / family's expense may be necessary to catch the dancer up. If more than 1 practiced is missed without reason the dancer may be omitted from the choreography. If mandatory practices are missed the dancer may be omitted from the choreography. It is not fair to the instructors or other dancers to unnecessarily miss group practices.

Music for this choreography is assigned by the organizer and has not been received to date. As you can imagine it is difficult to plan and choreography without the key component of music. Therefore, it is particularly difficult for me to know exactly how much costumes will cost and whether all dancers will be necessary at all practices.

Thank you for your enthusiasm as well as your patience and understanding as we embark on this choreography adventure!

Please confirm your interest by with rehearsal fee payment of $120 by Feb. 15th, 2012.

Any questions? Dates you know you will miss? Please contact me at: kendra@jonespilatesandhighland.com or (306) 821 – 6061.

Thank you!

Miss Kendra
